ORTHODOX JEWS' CONGRESS. [From yesterday's New York Sun.]

A conference of the orthodox Jews of the United States and Canada was opened yesterday morning in the Spacish and Portuguese synagogue, Seventieth street and Central Park West. Delegates were present from various parts of this country and the Domin-

The first business of the conference was to consider a report made by the committee appointed to draw up a decharation of principles. The commit-tee's report, which was unanimously adopted, said in part:

"This conference of delegates from Jewish congregations in the United States and the Dominion of Canada is convened to advance the interests of positive Biblical, rabbinical and historical Judaism. We are assembled not as a synod, and therefore we have no legislative authority to decide religious questions, but as a representative body. which by organization and co-operation will endeavor to advance the interests of Judaism is America.

We hold that the Talmud contains he traditional and legal interpretation I the Scriptures and that the rabbic cal exposition already received is binding. That the Abrahamic covenant is indispensable for the admission of males into Judaism, and intermarriage beween Jewand Gentile cannot be permitted unless the Gentile is converted from conviction and complies with the quirements of our existing laws.

"That we are still a nation, though temporarily without national home, and nat the restoration to Zion is the legitimate aspiration of scattered Israel, in no way conflicting with our loyalty to the land in which we dwell or may dwell at any time.

"We believe that in our dispersion we are to be united with our brethren of alien taith in all that devolves upon men as citizens, but that religiously in rites, ceremonies, ideals and doctrines we are separate and must remain separate in accordance with the divine deciaration: 'I have separated you from the nations to be mine.' Lev., xx, 26."

"Historical associations and prophetic promises invest the land of Israel with an attraction for the Jew, and awaken among the Gentiles a recognition of fitness for this purpose not possessed by any other region.

"The elimination of the idea of the political State from the present programme of Zionism averts the possibility of opposition from the Turkish gov ernment or from those European powers that have special interest in the holy places of the cradle of Christianity.

"We unhesitatingly affirm that there is nothing incompatible between enthusiastic adherence to Zonism and the most ardent American patriotism, and what we can affirm for America our English brethern can affirm for Butish patriots, and our European brethern as to their respective coun-

The Rev. H. Zinsler said that he knew of four congregations in this city, all of which had taken to Zionism without consulting their rabbis. They had combined and formed "a Zionistic society," he said. A Jew who observed the Talmud was in duty bound to work for Zionism. A committee to report on a plan for congregational union was now named, and a recess was taken until evening At 8:30 o'clock the conference met again, and the committee submitted a report and three resolutions. The first two referred to the plan of forming s union of Jewish churches, and the third contained a proposition for the observance of Sunday by the Hebrews as the Sabbath. An excited discussion began as soon as this report was read.

"We ought to observe Sunday in this free America," said one of the speakers. Before any extended debate could be had on the committee report, the whole matter was sidetracked by a moton to proceed with other business.
